

2020 Postgraduate Program – Virtual AC – Practical Task

You have 45 minutes from the time that this activity is emailed to you, to complete the riddle, answer the questions, and email your response back to the recruitment team.

You can put your answers only, numbered, in the body of your return email.

Instructions:

Please use the below clues to answer these questions:

1. Where does the Forensic Analyst live?
2. Which employee drinks chamomile tea?
3. What colour is the Accountant's desk?
4. Where did the person from St Kilda travel last year?
5. Which employee went to Thailand?

Clues:

On level 8 of ASIC's Melbourne office sit 5 desks in a row. Each desk is a different colour.

At each desk sits an employee of ASIC with a different job title.

These five employees all drink a different kind of tea, travelled to a different country for a holiday last year and live in a different Melbourne suburb.

The Policy Adviser sits at the pink desk

The Risk Officer went to Japan

The Executive Assistant drinks green tea

The cream desk is on the left of the purple desk

The cream desk's occupant drinks earl grey

The person who lives in Werribee went to France

The occupant of the maroon desk lives in Brunswick

The person who sits at the centre desk drinks chamomile tea

The Forensic Analyst sits at the desk on the far left

The person who lives in Oakleigh sits next to the one went to Fiji

The person who went to Canada sits next to the person who lives in Brunswick

The person who lives in St Kilda drinks English breakfast

The Accountant lives in Frankston

The Forensic Analyst sits next to the aqua desk

The person who lives in Oakleigh sits next to the person who drinks peppermint tea
